JUNIOR GIRL SCOUT Troop #322 of Appomattox, Virginia is proud to announce that Marlisa Mosley sold 350 boxes of Girl Scout cookies during February and March this year. The Troop wishes to thank all those people in the Community who have shown their support of the Girl Scouts by buying cookies. With the profits, the Troop plans to go camping along with Troops from Appomattox, Buckingham, and Charlotte Counties over the weekend of May 15, 16, and 17. The Camporee weekend will be held at Camp Sacajawea in Bedford County. The Troop wishes to thank Thelma Knight, the Troop Cookie Mother who reports that 1,572 boxes of cookies were sold by Troop #322 this year. That is a lot of bookkeeping. Thank you Cookie Mother!

Anniversary memorial

UDC remembers

On Thursday, April 9 the Appomattox Chapter of the U.D.C. met at Maude's Restaurant at noon for a memorial service to honor those who fell for the War Between the States in 1865.

The Rev. David Camden, pastor of Mt. Comfort United Methodist Church spoke to the 21 members and guests on Civil War days. "Today we pay our respects and tribute to the men who fought in the Civil War. We remember the hungry troops, their courage and hard struggle. We think of those who died with a sword and bullet wound on the battlefield; those who died as prisoners from malnutrition, no medicine, poor food and equipment."

On Palm Sunday, April 9, 1965 General Robert E. Lee surrendered to Genral Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox. In departing the word of Lee, "You will take with you the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed, and I earnestly pray that a merciful God will extend to you his blessing and protection."

Mrs. Hazel Lee Martin president of the local chapter welcomed the guests and returned thanks for the meal.

Our guest included Mrs. Karen Gibson, soloist, and three "Sons of Confederate Veterans" who are with the Magruder-Ewell Camp 99, Newport News, Virginia.

Mrs. Gibson presented a program in string music and a selection of old southern songs. Among some of them were "When Johnny Comes Marching Home." "My Gentle Heart" to the tune of Londonry Air. concerning the Civil War.

Pledges to the United States Flag were led by Mrs. Tilden Lee. Salutes to the Virginia Flag were led by Mrs. Louise Plunkett.

Salutes to the Confederate Flag were led by Mrs. Frances Harvey.

Mrs. Harriett Cunningham read the ritual and Confederate prayer.

Mrs. Martin announced that many of our Appomattox County Confederate soldiers served in the second Virginia Calvary. Anyone interested in placing an order please contact Mrs. O. W. Martin, Jr., Route 3, Box 282, Appomattox, Va. The cost of each history will be $11.50 which will include tax and postage. Please make checks payable to the Virginia Division United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Mrs. Karen Gibson led the group in singing, "Blest Be The Tie".

The May meeting members will meet on Thursday, May 21 at 7:30 p.m. at Appomattox County Library.

THE APPOMATTOX CHAPTER Future Business Leaders of America received four awards at the 31st FBLA State Leadership Conference at The Mosque in Richmond on Saturday, April 11. Duane Blanks, Sheila Roach, Patty Roach, James Beaty and Nugene Harvey placed third in Parliamentary Procedures; Penny Wooten, fourth on Job Description Manual; Tammy Jamerson, fifth in Clerk Typing and the chapter received an Honor Chapter Award. Other FBLA'ers attending from Appomattox were Jane Almond, Mitzi Baldwin, Susan George, Terri Nash and Sharon Cheatham.

Mrs. Samuel Lee Page, Jr.

Miss Doss marries Mr. Page

Miss Glenda Faye Doss, and Samuel Lee Page, Jr. were united in marriage on Saturday, April 11, at two o'clock in the afternoon at Liberty Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe W. Doss of Appomattox. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Page also of Appomattox.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Rex J. Bennett, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, Appomattox.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Franklin Vaughan, organist. Mrs. Richard Lawson, soloist, sang "One-Hand" "One-Heart", and "Theme from Love Story."

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents.

The bride wore a white floor length gown fashioned of dacron polyester organza, trimmed with imported Venice lace around the bodice, neckline, and also enhanced on the tapered cuffs of the long full sleeves. The fingertip veil and matching headpiece were accented with matching lace. Her cascade bouquet consisted of yellow silk roses, daisies, ivory and babies breath.

Mrs. Glenn Cumbie, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a green floor length dress of a smooth polyester knit, enhanced with a subtle sheen. She carried a bouquet of silk roses, carnations, and lilies.

Bridesmaids were Miss Judy Doss, sister of the bride, Mrs. Todd Roach, cousin of the bride, Miss Rita Page, sister of the bridegroom, and Lisa Maddox, neice of the bridegroom, all of Appomattox. They wore similiar dresses to that of the honor attendant, with colors of yellow and green. They carried bouquets similiar to that of the honor attendant.

Thomas R. Bass, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Todd Roach, Marvin Doss, brother of the bride, Steve Almond, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Appomattox, and Frank B. Litchford of Concord.

Miss Tracey Dianne Scruggs, of Appomattox, was flower girl.

Master Brian Cumbie, nephew of the bride, of Appomattox, was ring bearer.

The mother of the bride attended the ceremony in a formal length dress of dark green. She wore a corsage of white silk roses and orchids trimmed with yellow peco ribbon.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church social hall. Hostesses were Mrs. Mabel Smith, Miss Susan Rosser, Mrs. Kathryn Nash, and Mrs. Jean Maddox, all of Appomattox.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School. She is employed by J. W. Conner Insurance Agency in Appomattox.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and Central Virginia Community College in Lynchburg. He is employed by Courtland Manufactures Company, Inc.

After a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.

Conner wins

Nancy Conner of Appomattox was the winner of the Zenith portable television given away at Lawson Ford Inc. during the celebration of the arrival of the new 1982 Ford EXP.

Bride-to-be honored

Miss Debra Ann McFadden, whose marriage to Roger Dale Hughes will take place in May, was honored on March 26 with a lingerie shower given by Patsy Pierce and Doris McClary at the Appomattox Rescue Building.

On Saturday, March 28 Roma Peters and Barbara Farmer both aunts of the bride to be, honored Miss McFadden with a household shower at the home of Roma Peters.

Close friends and relatives of the couple attended the showers.

The Hughes-McFadden wedding will take place at 7:00 in the evening on May 9.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. (Pete) McFadden of Gladstone. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Thelma Hughes of Appomattox.

Although no invitations are being sent, friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend.
